

Accept Payments in Virtual Currencies

Get payouts in your preferred currency

SECURE PAYMENTS

With Coinify Payments you can accept more than 10 of the most widely adopted virtual currencies including Bitcoin, Ethereum and Litecoin. Coinify converts any payment made in virtual currencies into a traditional currency of your choice - so there's no need to hold virtual currency and you will never be exposed to price fluctuations. This allows you to differentiate your business and capture more customers offering an attractive payment method.

HOW IT WORKS

Step 1

Customer wants to pay for a purchase of €50 in Bitcoin. They select the cryptocurrency payment option.
